

I understand that the FCC is considering regulations that would restrict unsolicited telemarketing phone calls. I commend your efforts. Indiana already has legislation in place that has greatly reduced the number of phone calls we receive. Please either use this same legislation, or do not dilute Indiana's law.